 105,553,890	The symposium was "fine" ~ for what it was. I actually hoped for a symposium on entrepreneurialism instead of few of the "talented 10th" finding $$ and resources to become Silicon Valey lite Silicon valley. With all the blight in Detroit I didn't hear a single mention (for instance) on how to start up construction firms, how to get permits (etc). I submit that what Detroit needs, are roofers, carpenters , plumbers. Read the millionaire next door!	Sunday, Oct 12th 7:12PM
 105,552,922	Excellent conference. The best I've been to in a LONG time. For future events, please keep the introductions of each panelist to a minimum of 3 minutes or less OR introduce them yourself. They took way too long on personal introductions and was not fair that the audience did not have a lot of time to engage with the panelists.	Sunday, Oct 12th 6:42PM
 105,505,150	Great speakers and panelist. Stick to the schedule, make panelists' intro brief so that they actually have time to answer questions. Overall very enlightening and I will definitely clear my schedule for the next one. Thank you for your hard work in bringing it to us.	Saturday, Oct 11th 5:57PM
 105,499,205	UES was full of diversity and knowledge sharing from entrepreneurs in various stages. The passion and open forum to share through transparency was refreshing.	Saturday, Oct 11th 3:14PM

 105,491,146	Eliminate panels and make room for multiple successful entrepreneurs to educate the audience.	Saturday, Oct 11th 12:29PM
 105,488,888	The panels were excellent and managed to hold our attention throughout the morning and into the early afternoon. I was especially impressed with the social entrepreneurship and community engagement panel as well as the youth panel with creative apps. It was too long to wait for lunch, and I would suggest that for future conferences that we eat earlier. It might also be nice to have a display area with examples of entrepreneurial work. Make a blend of panel discussion and and interactive workshom	Saturday, Oct 11th 10:45AM
 105,486,400	Need more unstructured time. A lot of good connections were being made but were interrupted by the program.	Saturday, Oct 11th 11:06AM
 105,485,201	none	Saturday, Oct 11th 10:50AM
 105,485,149	Excellent conference. I learned a lot and I am so happy I took the time to come out and see what the conference had to offer. My only suggestion is to half the people on the panels be mindful of time. They spent way too long individually introducing themselves, so it did not allow for many questions to be asked.	Saturday, Oct 11th 10:49AM

 105,472,538	While UES2014 was very well meaning and very well executed, I found it a bit of a "Rah-Rah" and "power of positive thinking" and "echo chamber" fest. Urban entrepreneurship can't be ATAP -- all things to all people. There needs to be a hard discussion of whether all the help and helpers suck up the resources that should be getting easier to the entrepreneurs. I would have liked some hard questions being asked and diagnoses being made.	Saturday, Oct 11th 8:41AM
