 139,814,677	More opportunities for personal interaction with selected experts	Sunday, Nov 1st 7:52PM
 139,741,303	A lot of dialog/discussions at the forum. I would like to see some workshops or hands-on activities.	Friday, Oct 30th 10:12PM
 139,712,108	Very well put, would like more sessions on accelerating startups and providing foundation for them	Friday, Oct 30th 10:09AM
 139,581,801	UES2015 provided an excellent cross-section of business/policy/peer resources. Speakers for the panel discussions were diverse, informative and transparent. The conference proved to be a value added experience and I look forward to following up with many of the links and relative materials to enhance and position my business initiatives. Improvements may include additional dialogue with participants, and an opportunity to attend more of the breakout sessions. Great day!	Thursday, Oct 29th 1:54PM
 139,564,284	I had typed out some constructive feedback twice in this box and it was deleted. My feedback would be to offer a better place to provide feedback. A spot that would accept paragraph form/spell check ect ect. as well as a spot to provide email contact info if you wanted to follow up. To that end, if you would like to contact me, my email is christopher.pk.rein@gmail.com	Thursday, Oct 29th 12:37PM
 139,519,954	Great event and awesome networking opportunities	Wednesday, Oct 28th 9:52PM
 139,518,608	I would have appreciated a change in format throughout the day if possible	Wednesday, Oct 28th 9:23PM
 139,510,865	More accurate descriptions regarding content of panels is needed. Make use of technology available, many questions were asked electronically but not addressed by the panel. Time was also wasted on answering irrelevant questions, which could be avoided by generating a "parking lot" for questions that can be addressed afterwards. Collecting groups of people together based on industry or interest would improve networking at tables. More visible reservation signs would be helpful too.	Wednesday, Oct 28th 7:23PM
 139,510,836	Great job!	Wednesday, Oct 28th 7:33PM
 139,503,376	I enjoyed the many different panels and the issues they addressed.	Wednesday, Oct 28th 5:15PM
 139,491,950	It was a great event.	Wednesday, Oct 28th 2:41PM
 139,489,374	fantastic program. Wonderful lineup of speakers. more sustainable ways to serve lunch... seems odd to throw away things and not even recycle considering the issues that were discussed,	Wednesday, Oct 28th 2:02PM

 139,487,343	Great conference, interesting speakers we don't normally hear from in the traditional business world. Miguel was particularly interesting. Conference could've been a bit shorter - ended up being a long day so couldn't stay for the entire thing.	Wednesday, Oct 28th 1:42PM
 139,485,241	more workshops	Wednesday, Oct 28th 1:18PM
 139,484,881	Thanks for this event and focusing on social entrepreneurship. It felt very inclusive. (And nothing you could do about the soggy sandwiches!)	Wednesday, Oct 28th 1:13PM
 139,484,669	Find ways to make sessions more interactive (besides tweeting)	Wednesday, Oct 28th 1:13PM
 139,484,096	More community development group participation	Wednesday, Oct 28th 1:04PM
 139,483,389	Excellent event! Maybe some breakout sessions - small groups where everyone's passionate about the topic - brainstorm actionable ideas to address a specific challenge.	Wednesday, Oct 28th 12:59PM
 139,416,222	I would encourage smaller break out sessions, where we could have dialogues and engage with one another. Entrepreneurship is exciting and the conference should provide space/opportunities to get people talking to each other as much as possible, versus a lecture style conference.	Tuesday, Oct 27th 9:45PM
 139,372,233	Excellent. Very engaging. Enjoyed the panelist.	Tuesday, Oct 27th 6:32PM
 139,357,627	It was a great event, especially with regard to networking opportunities. Perhaps next conference should focus on grouping startup entrepreneurs with established sponsors and organizations correlated by shared interests and need to be addressed.	Tuesday, Oct 27th 5:37PM
 139,240,252	More information on non profits other than that it was excellent.	Tuesday, Oct 27th 1:37PM
 139,200,648	audio was hard to hear, and the twitter feed on the screen was really distracting while people were presenting	Tuesday, Oct 27th 12:06PM
 139,184,584	nothing at this time	Tuesday, Oct 27th 11:04AM
 139,183,656	A consistent registration process, it's either free or not free. Better lunch ($40 for grade-school box lunch isn't professional or equitable) Shorter introductions from panelists to allow more time for Q&A.	Tuesday, Oct 27th 11:00AM
 139,182,199	A little less time on panelist company "pitches" and more time spent on actual techniques used would be helpful.	Tuesday, Oct 27th 10:53AM
 139,180,556	All content was useful, and interesting. More opportunity for small group conversation would enhance the conference. I was tired by end of day - just listening.	Tuesday, Oct 27th 10:43AM
 139,178,037	Great day, great venue. Keep it in Detroit. Keynote had an interesting story, but I don't know if he really brought the inspiration that is so needed in a keynote address. You should figure out a way to bring more small business owners in Detroit to talk about their experiences.	Tuesday, Oct 27th 10:33AM
	Could improve vegan food options.	Tuesday, Oct 27th

	It was an excellent symposium with outstanding presenters. Remind panelists/speaker to speak directly into the mike. Inform speakers in advance that a specific hand signal from the audience indicates they can't be heard.		Tuesday, Oct 27th 8:32AM

	It was very painful having to choose between seminars. In the future, I would prefer to be able to attend ALL the workshops, especially since as a student I am the least educated in these areas.		Monday, Oct 26th 10:37AM
